

Other Information

Included in your registration is a generous table space, a banquet style chair, and access to a power outlet.

You should plan to bring anything else that will make your stitching weekend more comfortable and productive, such as your stitching projects, all necessary supplies, floor and/or table stand, project light, magnifier, and even your favorite, comfortable chair and, of course, your slippers!

In consideration of those who are sensitive to scents we ask that you refrain from wearing perfume or bringing anything scented into the stitching room.

Kimberly Reger

Feel free to call me for any questions or if additional information is required.

Janet Ottman

Happy to help choose just the right materials for that special project you want to start.

Paul Reger

General 'go fer' to keep the store open during the weekend and deliver any required supplies to the Treadway.

Weekend Company

Grandmother's Thimble is sponsoring a Quilter's Getaway the same weekend at the Treadway. The quilters will enjoy a separate meeting room, however we will be sharing all meals and breaks with that group. This will be a great opportunity to meet and socialize with others enjoying a related needlework craft.

Register now as space is limited!

Stitchery Row Stitcher's Delight
Weekend Getaway
January 25—27, 2008

Please join us for our fourth annual Weekend Getaway. We have reserved the Owego Treadway Inn for three days of stitching, workshops, and camaraderie. Make new friends, catch up with old friends, work on that project that needs your undivided attention, or bring a bunch of projects and stitch a little on each. This is your opportunity to treat yourself to some "you" time.

We're also planning some mini-workshops lasting 15 to 20 minutes. These sessions will be held in the stitching room during our stitching times. Suggest topics of interest when you register. We'll also prepare one or two others.

We'll have a benefit silent auction, show-and-tell table, gallery, and mini-boutique as well.

A relaxing, exhilarating weekend just for you!
